

ROUNDS OBJECTIVES

March 6, 2018

Dr. Ward Patrick

Critical Care

“ICU, Morbidity After Survival: PICS and PICS-F

Objectives:

- To become aware of potential long term morbidity that may occur in patients who survive ICU admission and/or families of ICU patients
- To discuss strategies to minimize this morbidity while in ICU
- To discuss management strategy for patients with PICS and family members with PICS-F

March 13, 2018

Cancelled – March Break

March 20, 2018

Dr. Maitreyi Kothandaraman

Division of Gastroenterology

“Malnutrition in Hospital”

Objectives:

- Discuss the prevalence of malnutrition in hospital
- Describe the importance of diagnosing malnutrition in hospitalized patients including the impact of malnutrition on morbidity, length of hospital stay, and mortality
- Discuss strategies to screen for malnutrition in hospital and strategies for nutrition intervention

March 27, 2018

Dr. Jonathon Fowles

Division of Endocrinology – Sam York Lecture

“Exercise in Medicine in Health Care”

Objectives:

- Describe the health benefits and safety of regular physical activity and exercise with patients.
- Use the “Physical Activity Vital Sign” as a part of the regular clinic visits.
- Provide basic physical activity counseling and exercise prescription to patients as part of regular patient care.

