Recognizing & Tackling Malnutrition

Sept 13 2022, 8-9 am ADT

Description

This presentation will review the latest evidence on the impact of hospital-based malnutrition and effective methods to detect, prevent and treat this debilitating condition in hospital and post discharge. It will include cutting-edge research that has been conducted by the Canadian Malnutrition Task Force over the last decade. Evidence-based protocols, pathways and tools aimed at tackling malnutrition that can be used by medical teams will be highlighted.
