The J. Barrie Ross Lecture in Dermatology

This is the 13th annual J. Barrie Ross Lecture in Dermatology.

This lectureship was established by Dr. Ross' colleagues in November 2008 in recognition of Dr. Ross' significant contributions to Dermatology in the Maritime Provinces. Dr. Ross is respected for his exemplary patient care, dedication to education of students and residents, and for his research.

A Trust Fund to support this lectureship has been established by the Dalhousie University Division of Clinical Dermatology and Cutaneous Science.
