GRAND ROUNDS

Tuesdays, 0800-0900

Via Zoom

September 1, 2020

8:00-9:00

Title: Resilience: New Consensus on Dementia Prevention: Beyond Cardiovascular Risk Factors

Presenter: Kenneth Rockwood
(Division of Geriatrics)

Objectives:

- To consider that dementia is late-life is multiply determined, not simply the result of single-protein abnormalities.
- To understand how risk factors combine to induce both neuropathology, and its expression as dementia.
- To be aware of opportunities for dementia prevention in general, and in relation to their own specialty.

Evaluation:

- Complete evaluation on line at <https://survey.nshealth.ca/DoMGrandRounds>
