2018 COUPE Best Paper Contest for Medical Students

PURPOSE:

- The COUPE “Best Paper Award for Medical Students” is designed to recognize a student in undergraduate medical training who demonstrates an enhanced level of understanding and interest in mental health.
- Furthermore, this prize is intended to reward a student who takes the time and effort (during an extremely busy year!) to investigate a specific issue relevant to mental health, either within psychiatry or another area of medicine.
- Finally, this prize is intended to reward the student who best demonstrates an advanced level of scholarship expected at the senior stages of undergraduate medical education.

PROCESS:

The Undergraduate Education Committee of each Medical School will advertise the competition each year.

ELIGIBILITY:

- All full-time undergraduate students enrolled in the Doctor of Medicine Program at any of the 17 medical schools across Canada.
- The author of the paper should be an “individual student”, not a group.
- Submissions cannot have been previously published or be currently under consideration for publication.

REQUIREMENTS:

- The submission will be an academic discussion of ANY topic within the realm of mental health OR another area of medicine relating to mental health (i.e. post-MI depression, postpartum psychosis, etc...).
 - The topic chosen does NOT have to be drawn from a direct experience. It can address ANY AREA WITHIN MEDICINE, AS LONG AS IT RELATES TO MENTAL HEALTH!
 - The format is broad so that submissions can be in any one of a variety of forms (i.e. essay, review article, original research, argument etc.)
- All references will be appropriately documented. All pages will be numbered.
- Submissions will not exceed 2000 words in length.

- Tables/Figures (max. 3 in total) will be allowed in addition to the 2000 word limit.
- A Cover Page will be provided with Title, Author's Name, Word Count (without figures), Number of Pages, Date of Submission, E-mail Address, Mailing Address and Telephone Number.

DEADLINE:

Essays will be submitted via e-mail to the chair of the Psychiatry Undergraduate Education Committee Dr. Cheryl Murphy at murphyc@dal.ca. Submissions will not be accepted after Midnight, Friday, March 30, 2018. (Paper submissions will not be accepted)

EVALUATION:

The Psychiatry Undergraduate Education Committee from each school will be responsible for assessing the submissions and will forward the best two (2) papers to the COUPE Executive for adjudication by April 13, 2018.

- Submissions will be evaluated along 5 dimensions:
 1. Content
 2. Originality
 3. Thoroughness of Literature Review
 4. Style of Writing
 5. Organization
- Each dimension will be worth 10 points, for a cumulative mark out of 50 points.
- Submissions will NOT be returned after marking.

PRIZE:

The author of the winning submission will be notified by e-mail and acknowledged in the Canadian Journal of Psychiatry. As well, an announcement will be made at the CPA annual meeting in the fall.

The winner will receive $ 250.00, travel expenses paid to attend the fall CPA meeting, (up to a value of $750.00) as well as an engraved plaque from COUPE.
