

Dalhousie University, Department of Psychiatry and IWK Department of Psychiatry

Faculty positions in the Division of Child & Adolescent Psychiatry

Purpose The division is seeking to recruit clinical faculty with academic and teaching responsibilities in keeping with the expectations of the Dalhousie Department of Psychiatry Academic Funding Plan (AFP). Opportunities for leadership, continued professional development (CPD) and research are also well supported.

Faculty provide clinical care as part of the IWK Mental Health and Addictions Program. Psychiatric services are integrated within the program which includes community clinics, specialty clinics, intensive services, addiction services, forensic services, emergency psychiatric services and an acute psychiatry inpatient unit. The faculty of the Division of Child & Adolescent Psychiatry work collaboratively and often times flex capacity to ensure demands for child and adolescent psychiatric care are met. This allows faculty to enjoy working with a range of psychiatric presentations in children, youth and their families in different settings (inpatient, emergency department, outpatient, intensive services). It also requires faculty to have a range of expertise, skills and comfort managing moderate to complex psychiatric illness presentations.

Current specific clinical expertise based on need in the following areas are assets: eating disorders; assessment & intervention services for children with disruptive behavior disorders; emergency psychiatry and consult/liason psychiatry; family therapy.

Eligibility child & adolescent psychiatrists with preference for those who have completed Child & Adolescent Psychiatry Subspecialty Training.

Position available July 1, 2021.
