

Date	Staff	Topic	Cadaver	Industry Sponsor
Sept 20, 2023	Dr. Duplisea Dr. Mason	Open Pelvic and Abdominal Surgery	Female x 1 Male x 1
Objectives: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> To develop a surgical approach to open pelvic surgeries including prostatectomy To develop a surgical approach to open abdominal surgeries including cystectomy and urinary diversion To transition from assistant to lead surgeon with proper utilization of retraction and surgical assistants EPAs: COD12, COD 13
Oct 18, 2023	Dr. Keefe Dr. Kokorovic	Laparoscopic Basics + Laparoscopic Suturing Session	N/A
Objectives: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Develop an understanding for indications and contraindications for laparoscopic surgery in urology Recognize intraoperative and postoperative complications related to laparoscopic surgery in urology Become adept at instrument and suture handling and improve efficiency in laparoscopic suturing Understand the indications and steps for laparoscopic entry techniques EPAs: COD11
Nov 15, 2023	Dr. Cox Dr. McGregor	Intraoperative Consultations Laparoscopic Disasters Course	Male x 2
Objectives: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> To development an approach to independently consulting intraoperatively when other services require urologic opinion To develop the skills of common surgical repairs that may be required in this setting (e.g., ureteric repair/reimplant, bladder repair) To determine an appropriate post-operative management plan of patients with intraoperative urologic injuries To identify and manage acute laparoscopic emergencies intraoperatively (e.g., acute hemorrhage) EPAs: COD3, COD15, TTP4
Dec 20, 2023	Dr. MacLellan Dr. Bailly	Surgical Incisions Anatomy Review of Incisions	Male x 2
Objectives: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> To understand the most common urologic incisions relevant to various areas of urology (e.g., oncology, transplant, general urology, pediatrics) To understand the anatomic layers of the abdomen, scrotum, retroperitoneum, and inguinal region To develop an understanding positioning and landmarking as well as surgical steps of safely and effectively completing urologic incisions EPAs: FOD 7, COD6, COD14
Jan 17, 2024	Dr. Ory Dr. Moore	HOLEP + TURP Mentor	N/A

Objectives:

1. To review the indications, contraindications, and surgical steps of treatment of benign prostatic hyperplasia
2. To review the surgical steps of TURP and HOLEP for BPH
3. To recognize and manage intraoperative and postoperative complications of BPH surgery

EPAs: FOD5

Feb 21, 2024	Dr. Lantz Powers Dr. Paterson	Percutaneous Renal Access	Any x 2
--------------	----------------------------------	---------------------------	---------	--

Objectives:

1. To understand the indications, contraindications, and steps of percutaneous renal access
2. To become more comfortable with the imaging techniques for safe percutaneous renal access
3. To recognize and manage intraoperative and postoperative complications for percutaneous renal access

EPAs: COD10

Mar 20, 2024	Dr. Rendon Dr. McGregor	Laparoscopic Renal Surgery Hemostatic Agents Partial Nephrectomy "Recipe"	Any x 2
--------------	----------------------------	---	---------	--

Objectives:

1. To determine the indications, contraindications, and steps for laparoscopic renal surgery
2. To become more familiar with renal hilum management options
3. To understand techniques for renorrhaphy in partial nephrectomy including suturing techniques and hemostatic strategies
4. To review the available hemostatic agents including their hemostatic properties, preparation, and effective use

EPAs: COD11