

ECON 2213 / CHIN 2290
Emerging Giants: The Economic Rise of China and India
Fall 2023

Dalhousie University acknowledges that we are in Mi'kma'ki, the ancestral and unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq People and pays respect to the Indigenous knowledges held by the Mi'kmaq People, and to the wisdom of their Elders past and present. The Mi'kmaq People signed Peace and Friendship Treaties with the Crown, and section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982 recognizes and affirms Aboriginal and Treaty rights. We are all Treaty people.

Dalhousie University also acknowledges the histories, contributions, and legacies of African Nova Scotians, who have been here for over 400 years.

Office Hours:

Tuesday 2-3 p.m. and Thursday 10-11 a.m.

Course Description:

This course examines the economic history, current issues, and future trends of China and India, answering such questions as: What explains China's and India's growth? How is climate change affected by this growth? How are global labour markets affected? Must growth lead to rising inequality? Is democracy required for development?

Course Prerequisites:

ECON 1101 (grade of C or above) and ECON 1102 (grade of C or above)

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of the course, students should be able to:

- Understand the forces that have shaped the economies of China and India.
- Identify the implications of history and culture on economic outcomes.
- Analyze the factors that affect GDP, demographic change, trade, the environment, and institutions.
- Find and analyze data to form conclusions.
- Write clear and concise essays.

Course Delivery:

This course will be delivered in person. Lectures will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4:05 to 5:25 p.m. in Computer Science 127.

Course Materials:

This course does not have a textbook. Students will be required to read articles that will be available through the library, and are responsible for material presented during class.

Course Assessment:

Review Quizzes (best 4 of 5)	20%
Assignments (best 4 of 5)	40%
Tests (2)	40%

Review Quiz Dates:

Review Quiz 1	Tuesday, Sept. 26, available 12:00-11:59 p.m. (40-minute time limit)

Assignment Due Dates:

Assignment 1	Thursday, Sept. 28, 11:59 p.m.
Assignment 2	Thursday, Oct. 12, 11:59 p.m.
Assignment 3	Thursday, Oct. 26, 11:59 p.m.
Assignment 4	Thursday, Nov. 9, 11:59 p.m.
Assignment 5	Thursday, Nov. 30, 11:59 p.m.

Test Dates:

Test 1	Tuesday, Oct. 17, in class (4:05-5:25 p.m.)
Test 2	Thursday, Nov. 30, in class (4:05-5:25 p.m.)

The review quizzes will be held on Brightspace and will contain 20 multiple choice questions on the PowerPoints and lectures. The review quiz grade will be based on the best 4 out of the 5 review quizzes; each review quiz is worth 5%. The review quizzes will be available on the dates listed above between 12:00 noon and 11:59 p.m. Students will have 40 minutes to complete each quiz.

The assignments will be done individually and submitted on Brightspace. The assignment grade will be based on the best 4 out of the 5 assignments; each assignment is worth 10%.

The tests will be held in person and will contain fill-in-the-blank, short answer, and essay questions; each test is worth 20%. Test 1 will cover the material in modules 1-2 on the reading list; Test 2 will cover modules 3- 5. Test 1 will be held on October 17; Test 2 will be held on November 30.

Conversion of Numerical Grades to Final Letter Grades:

A+ (90-100)	B+ (77-79)	C+ (65-69)	D (50-54)
A (85-89)	B (73-76)	C (60-64)	F (<50)
A- (80-84)	B- (70-72)	C- (55-59)

Course Policies:Assignments:

- Late assignments will be penalized by 10 points (out of 50 points) per day, starting immediately after the assignment is due at 11:59 p.m.
- However, you are allowed to submit one assignment up to 48 hours late without being assessed a late penalty, as long as you email me before the due date, stating your name and B00 number and requesting the extended deadline.
- Considering that your lowest assignment grade is dropped and that you are allowed to submit one assignment up to 48 hours late, I will not accept any excuses for missed or late assignments; I do not accept the Student Declaration of Absence form for late assignments.
- Plagiarism-checking software may be used in the course.
- You are allowed to use generative AI for brainstorming ideas and for editing your work; if you use AI in this way, you are required to provide links to your chat logs at the end of your assignment. Keep in mind that AI tools sometimes invent “facts” or citations; you alone are responsible for verifying all facts and references.

Review Quizzes:

- Review quizzes are “open-book” but not “open-internet.” That is, you are allowed to use the class PowerPoints, the article study sheets, the articles, and your own lecture notes during the quizzes, but you are not allowed to access the internet or to collaborate with other students.
- Considering that your lowest review quiz grade is dropped, and that you will have a 12-hour window in which to complete each quiz, I will not accept any excuses for missed or late quiz submissions; I do not accept the Student Declaration of Absence form for late quizzes.

Tests:

- If a student misses either test for a valid reason, then the student will be required to write a makeup test early in the winter term. Note: the makeup test will be cumulative, covering material from the entire semester.
- Students will be allowed to bring in one 3” × 5” index card to each test, with anything written on the card (both sides) that they believe will be helpful in writing the test.

Academic Integrity:

- Collaboration on review quizzes, assignments, and tests is not allowed and is considered a failure of academic integrity, which will be reported to the Academic Integrity Officer of the Faculty of Science.

Lectures:

- If class is cancelled due to a holiday, instructor illness, or a campus closure, or if a given module’s course material cannot be completed during class time for any reason, the material will be presented in videos that will be uploaded to Brightspace.
- The appropriate lecture capture capability is not available in this classroom, so lectures will not be recorded.

Email:

- I will attempt to respond to emails within 24 hours on a weekday and 48 hours on a weekend.

University Policies and Statements

Recognition of Mi'kmaq Territory

Dalhousie University would like to acknowledge that the University is on Traditional Mi'kmaq Territory. The Elders in Residence program provides students with access to First Nations elders for guidance, counsel, and support. Visit or e-mail the Indigenous Student Centre at 1321 Edward St or elders@dal.ca. Additional information regarding the Indigenous Student Centre can be found at: https://www.dal.ca/campus_life/communities/indigenous.html

Internationalization

At Dalhousie, 'thinking and acting globally' enhances the quality and impact of education, supporting learning that is "interdisciplinary, cross-cultural, global in reach, and orientated toward solving problems that extend across national borders." Additional internationalization information can be found at: <https://www.dal.ca/about-dal/internationalization.html>

Academic Integrity

At Dalhousie University, we are guided in all our work by the values of academic integrity: honesty, trust, fairness, responsibility, and respect. As a student, you are required to demonstrate these values in all the work you do. The University provides policies and procedures that every member of the university community is required to follow to ensure academic integrity. Additional academic integrity information can be found at: https://www.dal.ca/dept/university_secretariat/academic-integrity.html

Accessibility

The Student Accessibility Centre is Dalhousie's centre of expertise for matters related to student accessibility and accommodation. If there are aspects of the design, instruction, and/or experiences within this course (online or in-person) that result in barriers to your inclusion, please contact the Student Accessibility Centre (https://www.dal.ca/campus_life/academic-support/accessibility.html) for all courses offered by Dalhousie with the exception of Truro. For courses offered by the Faculty of Agriculture, please contact the Student Success Centre in Truro (<https://www.dal.ca/about-dal/agricultural-campus/student-success-centre.html>)

Conduct in the Classroom – Culture of Respect

Substantial and constructive dialogue on challenging issues is an important part of academic inquiry and exchange. It requires willingness to listen and tolerance of opposing points of view. Consideration of individual differences and alternative viewpoints is required of all class members, towards each other, towards instructors, and towards guest speakers. While expressions of differing perspectives are welcome and encouraged, the words and language used should remain within acceptable bounds of civility and respect.

Diversity and Inclusion – Culture of Respect

Every person at Dalhousie has a right to be respected and safe. We believe inclusiveness is fundamental to education. We stand for equality. Dalhousie is strengthened in our diversity. We are a respectful and inclusive community. We are committed to being a place where everyone feels welcome and supported, which is why our Strategic Direction prioritizes fostering a culture of diversity and inclusiveness (Strategic Priority 5.2). Additional diversity and inclusion information can be found at: <http://www.dal.ca/cultureofrespect.html>

Student Code of Conduct

Everyone at Dalhousie is expected to treat others with dignity and respect. The Code of Student Conduct allows Dalhousie to take disciplinary action if students don't follow this community expectation. When appropriate, violations of the code can be resolved in a reasonable and informal manner - perhaps through a restorative justice process. If an informal resolution can't be reached, or would be inappropriate, procedures exist for formal dispute resolution. The full Code of Student Conduct can be found at:

https://www.dal.ca/dept/university_secretariat/policies/student-life/code-of-student-conduct.html

Fair Dealing Policy

The Dalhousie University Fair Dealing Policy provides guidance for the limited use of copyright protected material without the risk of infringement and without having to seek the permission of copyright owners. It is intended to provide a balance between the rights of creators and the rights of users at Dalhousie. Additional information regarding the Fair Dealing Policy can be found at:

https://www.dal.ca/dept/university_secretariat/policies/academic/fair-dealing-policy-.html

Originality Checking Software

The course instructor may use Dalhousie's approved originality checking software and Google to check the originality of any work submitted for credit, in accordance with the Student Submission of Assignments and Use of Originality Checking Software Policy. Students are free, without penalty of grade, to choose an alternative method of attesting to the authenticity of their work and must inform the instructor no later than the last day to add/drop classes of their intent to choose an alternate method. Additional information regarding Originality Checking Software can be found at: https://www.dal.ca/dept/university_secretariat/policies/academic/student-submission-of-assignments-and-use-of-originality-checking-software-policy-.html

Student Use of Course Materials

Course materials are designed for use as part of this course at Dalhousie University and are the property of the instructor unless otherwise stated. Third party copyrighted materials (such as books, journal articles, music, videos, etc.) have either been licensed for use in this course or fall under an exception or limitation in Canadian Copyright law. Copying this course material for distribution (e.g. uploading to a commercial third-party website) may lead to a violation of Copyright law.
