

ECON 2213 / CHIN 2290
Emerging Giants: The Economic Rise of China and India
Fall 2025

Dalhousie University acknowledges that we are in Mi'kma'ki, the ancestral and unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq People and pays respect to the Indigenous knowledges held by the Mi'kmaq People, and to the wisdom of their Elders past and present. The Mi'kmaq People signed Peace and Friendship Treaties with the Crown, and section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982 recognizes and affirms Aboriginal and Treaty rights. We are all Treaty people.

Dalhousie University also acknowledges the histories, contributions, and legacies of African Nova Scotians, who have been here for over 400 years.

Instructor Information:

Professor Teresa (Tess) Cyrus

Office: C15, Economics Department, 6220 University Avenue

E-mail address: tcyrus@dal.ca

Teaching Assistant:

Charlotte Milley (charlotte.milley@dal.ca)

Office Hours:

Tuesday and Thursday 4-5 p.m., Computer Science Cafe

Course Description:

This course examines the economic history, current issues, and future trends of China and India, answering such questions as: What explains China's and India's growth? How is climate change affected by this growth? How are global labour markets affected? Must growth lead to rising inequality? Is democracy required for development?

Course Prerequisites:

ECON 1101 (grade of C or above) and ECON 1102 (grade of C or above)

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of the course, students should be able to:

- Understand the forces that have shaped the economies of China and India.
- Identify the implications of history and culture on economic outcomes.
- Analyze the factors that affect GDP, demographic change, trade, the environment, and institutions.
- Interpret economic tables and figures.
- Find and analyze data to form conclusions.

Course Delivery:

This course will be delivered in person. Lectures will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 2:35 to 3:55 p.m. in Computer Science 127.

Course Materials:

This course does not have a textbook. Students will be required to read articles that will be available through the library, and are responsible for material presented during class.

Course Assessment:

Reflection Quizzes (10 of 12)	5%
Review Quizzes (best 4 of 5)	20%
Excel Assignments (2)	15%
Midterm	25%
Final Exam	35%

Review Quiz Dates:

Review Quiz 1	Tuesday, Oct. 14, available 12:00-11:59 p.m. (20-minute time limit)
Review Quiz 2	Tuesday, Oct. 28, available 12:00-11:59 p.m. (20-minute time limit)
Review Quiz 3	Tuesday, Nov. 18, available 12:00-11:59 p.m. (20-minute time limit)
Review Quiz 4	Tuesday, Dec. 2, available 12:00-11:59 p.m. (20-minute time limit)
Review Quiz 5	Tuesday, Dec. 9, available 12:00-11:59 p.m. (20-minute time limit)

Assignment Due Dates:

Assignment 1	Thursday, Oct. 23, 11:59 p.m.
Assignment 2	Thursday, Nov. 27, 11:59 p.m.

Test Dates:

Midterm	Tuesday, Nov. 4, in class (2:35-3:55 p.m.)
Final Exam	Scheduled by the Registrar during the final exam period (3 hours)

- There will be 12 reflection quizzes held randomly throughout the semester. Students will earn 0.5% of their grade for each reflection quiz, up to a maximum of 5% of their grade.
- The review quizzes will be held on Brightspace and will contain 10 multiple choice questions on the PowerPoints and lectures. The review quiz grade will be based on the best 4 out of the 5 review quizzes; each review quiz is worth 5%. The review quizzes will be available on the dates listed above between 12:00 noon and 11:59 p.m. Students will have 20 minutes to complete each quiz.
- The Excel assignments will be done individually and submitted on Brightspace. Each assignment is worth 7.5%.
- The midterm and final exam will be held in person and may contain multiple choice, fill-in-the-blank, short answer, and essay questions. The midterm, worth 25%, will be held on November 4 and will cover the material in modules 1-2 on the reading list. The final exam, worth 35%, will be scheduled by the Registrar during the final exam period and will be cumulative, but with more weight on the material in modules 3-5.

Conversion of Numerical Grades to Final Letter Grades:

A+ (90-100)	B+ (77-79)	C+ (65-69)	D (50-54)
A (85-89)	B (73-76)	C (60-64)	F (<50)
A- (80-84)	B- (70-72)	C- (55-59)

Course Policies:Reflection Quizzes:

- I do not accept the Student Declaration of Absence form for missed reflection quizzes.

Review Quizzes:

- Review quizzes are “open-book” but not “open-internet.” That is, you are encouraged to use the class PowerPoints, the article study sheets, the articles, and your own lecture notes during the review quizzes, but you are not allowed to access the internet or to collaborate with other students.
- Considering that your lowest review quiz grade is dropped, and that you will have a 12-hour window in which to complete each review quiz, I will not accept any excuses for missed or late review quiz submissions; I do not accept the Student Declaration of Absence form for missed review quizzes.

Excel Assignments:

- Late Excel assignments will be penalized by 5 points (out of 50 points) per day, starting at noon the day after the assignment is due.
- I will not accept any excuses for missed or late assignments; I do not accept the Student Declaration of Absence form for late assignments.
- Other than as noted in the instructions, students are not allowed to use generative AI for their assignments.

Tests:

- If a student misses the midterm for a valid reason, the student must submit a Student Declaration of Absence form by email within 24 hours. The weight of the midterm will then be placed on the final exam.
- If a student misses the final exam for a valid reason, the student must submit a Student Declaration of Absence form by email within 24 hours. The student will then be allowed to write a makeup exam early in the winter term.
- Students will be allowed to bring in one 3” × 5” index card to the midterm and the final exam, with anything written on the card (both sides) that they believe will be helpful in writing the test. The index card must be submitted along with their exam.
- Students must pass the test portion of the course (50% or higher) to pass the course.

Academic Integrity:

- Collaboration on review quizzes, Excel assignments, and tests is not allowed and is considered a failure of academic integrity, which will be reported to the Academic Integrity Officer of the Faculty of Science.

Lectures:

- If class is cancelled due to a holiday, instructor illness, or a campus closure, or if a given module’s course material cannot be completed during class time for any reason, the material will be presented in videos that will be uploaded to Brightspace.

- If the appropriate lecture capture capability is available in this classroom, lectures will be recorded and made available on Brightspace. Keep in mind that technology sometimes fails, so do not rely on lecture recordings; you are expected to attend class.
- Students are expected to put away their laptops and cell phones during class, unless permission has been granted. The use of tablets is fine; note-taking by hand is preferable.

Email:

- I will attempt to respond to emails within 24 hours on a weekday and 48 hours on a weekend.

University Policies and Statements

Recognition of Mi'kmaq Territory

Dalhousie University would like to acknowledge that the University is on Traditional Mi'kmaq Territory. The Elders in Residence program provides students with access to First Nations elders for guidance, counsel, and support. Visit or e-mail the Indigenous Student Centre at 1321 Edward St or elders@dal.ca. Additional information regarding the Indigenous Student Centre can be found at: https://www.dal.ca/campus_life/communities/indigenous.html

Internationalization

At Dalhousie, 'thinking and acting globally' enhances the quality and impact of education, supporting learning that is "interdisciplinary, cross-cultural, global in reach, and orientated toward solving problems that extend across national borders." Additional internationalization information can be found at: <https://www.dal.ca/about-dal/internationalization.html>

Academic Integrity

At Dalhousie University, we are guided in all our work by the values of academic integrity: honesty, trust, fairness, responsibility, and respect. As a student, you are required to demonstrate these values in all the work you do. The University provides policies and procedures that every member of the university community is required to follow to ensure academic integrity.

Additional academic integrity information can be found at:

https://www.dal.ca/dept/university_secretariat/academic-integrity.html

Accessibility

The Student Accessibility Centre is Dalhousie's centre of expertise for matters related to student accessibility and accommodation. If there are aspects of the design, instruction, and/or experiences within this course (online or in-person) that result in barriers to your inclusion, please contact the Student Accessibility Centre (https://www.dal.ca/campus_life/academic-support/accessibility.html) for all courses offered by Dalhousie with the exception of Truro. For courses offered by the Faculty of Agriculture, please contact the Student Success Centre in Truro (<https://www.dal.ca/about-dal/agricultural-campus/student-success-centre.html>)

Conduct in the Classroom – Culture of Respect

Substantial and constructive dialogue on challenging issues is an important part of academic inquiry and exchange. It requires willingness to listen and tolerance of opposing points of view. Consideration of individual differences and alternative viewpoints is required of all class members, towards each other, towards instructors, and towards guest speakers. While expressions of differing perspectives are welcome and encouraged, the words and language used should remain within acceptable bounds of civility and respect.

Diversity and Inclusion – Culture of Respect

Every person at Dalhousie has a right to be respected and safe. We believe inclusiveness is fundamental to education. We stand for equality. Dalhousie is strengthened in our diversity. We are a respectful and inclusive community. We are committed to being a place where everyone feels welcome and supported, which is why our Strategic Direction prioritizes fostering a culture of diversity and inclusiveness (Strategic Priority 5.2). Additional diversity and inclusion information can be found at: <http://www.dal.ca/cultureofrespect.html>

Student Code of Conduct

Everyone at Dalhousie is expected to treat others with dignity and respect. The Code of Student Conduct allows Dalhousie to take disciplinary action if students don't follow this community expectation. When appropriate, violations of the code can be resolved in a reasonable and informal manner - perhaps through a restorative justice process. If an informal resolution can't be reached, or would be inappropriate, procedures exist for formal dispute resolution. The full Code of Student Conduct can be found at:

https://www.dal.ca/dept/university_secretariat/policies/student-life/code-of-student-conduct.html

Fair Dealing Policy

The Dalhousie University Fair Dealing Policy provides guidance for the limited use of copyright protected material without the risk of infringement and without having to seek the permission of copyright owners. It is intended to provide a balance between the rights of creators and the rights of users at Dalhousie. Additional information regarding the Fair Dealing Policy can be found at:

https://www.dal.ca/dept/university_secretariat/policies/academic/fair-dealing-policy-.html

Originality Checking Software

The course instructor may use Dalhousie's approved originality checking software and Google to check the originality of any work submitted for credit, in accordance with the Student Submission of Assignments and Use of Originality Checking Software Policy. Students are free, without penalty of grade, to choose an alternative method of attesting to the authenticity of their work and must inform the instructor no later than the last day to add/drop classes of their intent to choose an alternate method. Additional information regarding Originality Checking Software can be found at: <https://www.dal.ca/about/leadership-governance/academic-integrity/faculty-resources/ouriginal-plagiarism-detection.html>

Student Use of Course Materials

Course materials are designed for use as part of this course at Dalhousie University and are the property of the instructor unless otherwise stated. Third party copyrighted materials (such as books, journal articles, music, videos, etc.) have either been licensed for use in this course or fall under an exception or limitation in Canadian Copyright law. Copying this course material for distribution (e.g. uploading to a commercial third-party website) may lead to a violation of Copyright law.
