

Environment, Sustainability and Society (ESS) Requirements for Bachelor of Community Design (BCD) Double Major in Community Design and Sustainability

SUST 1000.06 Introduction to ESS 1 (6 credit hours in fall term)
SUST 1001.06 Introduction to ESS 2 (6 credit hours in winter term)
SUST 2000.06 Local Governance, Citizen Engagement, and Sustainability
SUST 2001.06 Global Environmental Governance
SUST 3000.03 Environmental Decision-Making
SUST 3502.03 Campus as Living Lab (winter) or SUST 3701.03 Community as Living Lab (fall)
SUST 4000XY.06 Environment, Sustainability and Society Capstone
6 credit hours from the list of approved ESS electives (not PLAN):

Environment, Sustainability and Society Requirements for BCD Honours, Double Major in Community Design (Environmental Planning or Urban Design and Planning) and Sustainability

SUST 1000.06 Introduction to ESS 1 (6 credit hours in fall term)
SUST 1001.06 Introduction to ESS 2 (6 credit hours in winter term)
SUST 2000.06 Local Governance, Citizen Engagement, and Sustainability
SUST 2001.06 Environment, Sustainability and Governance: a Global Perspective
SUST 3000.03 Environmental Decision-Making
SUST 3502.03 Campus as Living Lab (winter) or SUST 3701.03 Community as Living Lab (fall)

Qualified BCD students may apply for the Honours program in Year 3. See School of Planning for details.

NOTE: SUST 1000 and SUST 1001 satisfy the Social Sciences, Life & Physical Sciences and Writing requirements for BCD students.

If you have questions or to book an advising appointment please contact: ess.advising@dal.ca