

FACULTY OF ARTS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES AWARD FOR SERVICE EXCELLENCE

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

PURPOSE: The Award for Service Excellence recognizes the importance of collegial governance to the operation of the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences. In honouring a faculty member who demonstrates excellence in service, this yearly Award places high value on the professional contributions made by members of the Faculty to committee processes (at departmental and Faculty levels), departmental and Faculty leadership, and other administrative service.

ELIGIBILITY: Candidates must be members of the Faculty on continuing appointment. This includes all full-time members of the Faculty but excludes department chairs and program coordinators, office holders of the Faculty (such as the Dean, Associate and Assistant Deans).

NOMINATION PROCEDURE: Nomination shall be by letter, signed by at least three members of the Faculty. The nomination letter will be a maximum of two (2) pages and will detail the particular instance or instances of collegial service that the nominators deem excellent. Nominators must secure the willingness of the candidate to be nominated and provide a current CV for the nominee. Evidence of Service Excellence will vary but might include:

1. Exceptional service (including leadership) to departmental and/or Faculty committees.
2. Sustained commitment to collegial processes in the Faculty (including but not limited to those of the DFA Collective Agreement).
3. Service beyond the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences but which nonetheless reflects excellent service to scholarship and higher education.

DEADLINE: Nominations and supporting documents should be sent to the Nominating Committee, Office of the Dean, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, no later than January 31, 2022. Please email the completed nomination file as a single pdf to fassdean@dal.ca.

SELECTION COMMITTEE: The Nominating Committee of the Faculty shall be the Selection Committee for the Award for Service Excellence and will recommend the successful candidate to the Dean by April 1, 2022.

AWARD AND RECOGNITION: A small plaque will be presented to the recipient. A larger plaque bearing the names of successful Award winners is hung in a prominent area of the Marion McCain Arts and Social Sciences Building.
