The Contest is only open to all Canadian residents (excluding Quebec residents)*, who are incoming full- or part-time graduate students who are either (i) entering their first year of graduate studies at Dalhousie University in September 2020, or (ii) who were accepted to begin their first year of studies at Dalhousie University in September 2020 but have deferred their commencement to the Winter 2021 or Summer 2021 semester, and who have reached the age of majority in their province or territory at the time of entry on the following conditions (“Entrants”):
   a. Contest Group employees, individuals connected to the Contest, their immediate family members and persons living in the same household as such employees and individuals connected to the Contest, are ineligible for entry.
   b. Each Entrant must be an incoming full- or part-time Dalhousie University student and may be required to provide proof of enrolment for September 2020.
   c. Each Entrant must be registered for Together@Dal: Grad Edition by August 31, 2020 at 11:59 p.m. by completing the online registration form via dal.ca/TogetherGrad.
   d. Each Entrant must be registered for this Contest by August 31, 2020 at 11:59 p.m.

2 The Contest opens on July 22, 2020 12:00 a.m. ADT and closes on August 31, 2020 at 11:59 p.m. ADT.

3 No purchase is necessary to participate. To participate in this Contest, Entrants must be registered for Together@Dal: Grad Edition and must register for this Contest by August 31, 2020, 2020 at 11:59 p.m. by completing the online program registration form via dal.ca/togethergrad and the online contest registration form which will be provided by email.

4 There are 2 prizes (each, a “Prize”, together, the “Prizes”) available to be won as follows:

Prize-winners will be selected September 1, 2020 via random draw from all entries received from July 22, 2020 to August 31, 2020. Dalhousie reserves the right to draw for Prizes in whatever order it deems suitable. The deemed winners will be contacted via email. The chances of winning depend on the number of entries received at the time of the draw. No purchase is required. Prizes for draw include a MacBook, approx. value $1699.00 (x1) and a $500 Visa Gift Card (x1). Winners must claim their prize between the time of notification and Dec. 31, 2020 or will have forfeited their prize. The winner will be required to correctly answer a time limited-skill-testing question.

5 The Contest Group will post a list of deemed winners on the Together@Dal: Grad Edition Brightspace page on September 1, 2020 and make reasonable attempts to notify each deemed winner by email within 24 hours of the draw using the contact information provided by the entrant, and, before being declared a “Winner”, the selected entrant will be required to:
   a. Confirm eligibility to participate in the Contest in accordance with Sections 1 and 4;
   b. Complete and sign a Waiver and Publicity Release in favour of Contest Group; and
   c. Answer a skill-testing question at the time the Prize is collected.
If no response is received by the Contest Group before December 31, 2020 at 11:59 p.m., if the skill-testing question is failed, or if Contest Group decides, in its sole discretion, that the Contest Rules have otherwise not been complied with, Contest Group reserves the right to re-draw for the Prize in accordance with these Contest Rules.

6 Each Winner shall be awarded one of the Prizes described in Section 4. The Prize cannot be substituted or exchanged for cash or designated to a person other than the person identified as the Winner by the Contest Group, except that the Contest Group reserves the right to substitute the Prize for a prize of equal or greater value.

7 The chances of winning depend on the number of entries received at the time of the draw.

8 Participation is limited to one entry per person.

9 The Contest Group reserves the right to suspend, cancel or modify the contest in whole or in part, at any time, for any reason whatsoever.

10 The Contest Group is not responsible or liable for any erroneous, incomplete, lost, illegible, incorrectly addressed entries, hardware or software malfunctions, failed or incomplete or garbled transmission, unavailability or inaccessibility of the entry portals, or other errors or problems whether caused by human error or otherwise, which may limit or affect an Entrant’s ability to participate in this Contest or be declared a Winner. Contest Group is not responsible for any typographical or other error in the administration or promotion of this Contest or in the announcement of prizes. Contest Group accepts no liability for any damage or loss arising with respect to the foregoing, or connected with the Contest in any way. If there is, as a result of any error, more potential winners than contemplated in the rules, the Contest Group reserves the right to hold a random draw amongst all prize claimants to award the correct number of prizes.

11 Contest Group reserves the right to disqualify any Entrant who has (i) engaged in attempts to interfere with the entry process, administration, or fairness of this Contest (ii) acted in any manner the Contest Group deems to be in violation of these Contest Rules, (iii) engaged in annoyance or harassment to any other person, or otherwise disruptive to this Contest. Online entries made by any automated system including robotic or form-filling software is prohibited and will result in disqualification of all entries by any Entrant using such assistance.

12 The prizes are awarded “as is” and with no warranties, express or implied. Each Winner must sign a Waiver and Publicity Release in favour of the Contest Group and their, directors, officers, representatives, agents, successors and assigns in order to collect the Prize.

13 By entering this Contest, each Entrant consents to the collection of their personal information (name, email address, Banner ID, etc.) by Dalhousie University for the purpose of administering this Contest. Personal information gathered from Entrants in connection with this Contest will be used for the purposes of administering the Contest, contacting participants and potential winners, and as otherwise permitted or required by law. Dalhousie University will not store or retain personal information provided by Entrants in connection with this Contest beyond May 31, 2022. Personal information of Entrants will not be used for any other purpose other than the purposes stated in these Contest Rules, and will not be provided to third parties.

14 Each Winner must grant to the Contest Group the right to use their name and likeness, without compensation or remuneration, for publicity purposes carried out by the Contest Group in connection with this Contest in any form of media or communications (including but not limited to the Dal News Weekly email newsletter, social media accounts such as Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and Snapchat, and the Dalhousie University website).

15 This Contest shall be governed by the laws of the Province of Nova Scotia. The parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Nova Scotia.
A separate draw connected to participation in Together@Dal is anticipated to be held exclusively for students who were unable to participate in the Contest due to Contest residency restrictions when campus reopens and students are permitted to return to Nova Scotia/Canada. Please note that full Contest Rules will be provided when the future prospective contest is confirmed and such rules are available, and that students may be required to provide proof of residency during the current Contest period in order to participate.
