

DALHOUSIE SCHOOL OF NURSING SIMULATION SHOWCASE

November 3 and 4, 2014

Forrest Building, Main Level
5869 University Avenue
Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada

Dalhousie University, School of Nursing, Laerdal Medical Canada and Wolters Kluwer Health invite you to a simulation workshop symposium.

This two-day event will include hands-on simulation sessions as well as informative discussions from leaders in academia, simulation education and industry. Topics will include:

- Inter-professional Education and Professional Development* - Kelly Lackie, Faculty/Interprofessional Education Lead – Capital District Health Authority
- Simulation Sustainability – Developing a Conceptual Framework* - John Gillespie, Educational Specialist, Laerdal Medical
- NCLEX Impact on Nursing Education 2015* - Jodi Orm, , Director of Simulation Education, Assistant Professor of Nursing - Lake Superior State University
- NCSBN Study – Use of Simulation in Nursing Education* Sandra Devlin Cop, Professor in Nursing, Program Coordinator-Clinical Simulation-Humber Institute

During the course of the two days, you will have the opportunity to network with leaders in simulation, experience simulation session's first-hand and gain insights into the design and use of simulation technology.

Please RSVP by contacting Brent Fairweather at Brent.Fairweather@Laerdal.com

Dalhousie School of Nursing

5869 University Avenue

Forest Building – Main Level

Commitment to Simulation Showcase Event

Agenda

Monday, 11/ 3

*Dentistry Department
Building – Room TBA*

8:30 – 9:00

*Registration/Welcome –
Coffee/Tea*

9:00 – 9:30

Welcome Remarks – Dalhousie Nursing

*Dentistry Department
Building – Room TBA*

9:30 – 10:30

*Simulation Sustainability,
Developing A Conceptual Framework –*

John Gillespie, Laerdal Medical

*Dentistry Department
Building – Room TBA*

10:30 – 10:45

Nutrition Break

10:45 – 11:45

Inter-professional Education and Team Dynamics –

*Kelly Lackie, Capital District
Health Authority*

*Dentistry Department
Building – Room TBA*

11:45 – 1:00

*NCLEX Impact for 2015, From Preparation to Simulation
and Post Adoption,
CoursePoint Integration*

Jodi Orm

Tuesday, 11/4

*Learning Sessions/Dalhousie Sim Lab Note:
These sessions will run throughout the day
to allow guests to participate in all four.*

8:30 – 9:00

Registration/Welcome – Coffee/Tea

9:00 – 10:30

3G Simulation - Q&A

Open sessions

OB - SimMom & SimNewB – Q&A

Pediatrics – SimJunior & SimBaby – Q&A

Wolters Kluwer – vSim – best practices

10:30 – 10:45

Transition to next session

10:45 – 12:00

3G Simulation - Q&A

Open sessions

OB - SimMom & SimNewB – Q&A

Pediatrics – SimJunior & SimBaby – Q&A

Wolters Kluwer – vSim – best practices

12:00 – 1:00

Lunch – Main Level/Staff Boardroom

1:00 – 2:30

IPE Simulation with Debriefing – 3G

Kim Hebert & Kelly Lackie

1:00 – 2:00	Dentistry Department Building – Room TBA Lunch – Main Level/Staff Boardroom Note: Sessions after lunch will be held in the Pharmacy Department Bldg.	2:30 – 2:45	Transition to next Session
2:15 – 3:15	NCSBN Study – Use of Simulation in Nursing Education Sandra Devlin Cop – Humber College	2:45 – 4:00 Opens Sessions	3G Simulation - Q&A OB - SimMom & SimNewB – Q&A Pediatrics – SimJunior & SimBaby – Q&A Wolters Kluwer – vSim – best practices
3:15 – 4:30	Tour the Facility and Simulation Lab	4:00 – 4:30	Wrap up – Simulation Lab

KATHLEEN MacMILLAN

Professor and Director School of Nursing Dalhousie University

Dr. Kathleen MacMillan is a graduate of the Toronto East General Hospital School of Nursing (diploma) and the University of Toronto (BSc, 1980;MA,1983,MSc,1992;PhD,2005). She has experience in clinical nursing practice, administration, research, education and health policy and is the author of numerous publications and invited presentations. She has been recognized as a distinguished alumna of the Faculty of Nursing at the U of T and received a Centennial Achievement Award from the Canadian Nurses' Association in 2008. Dr. MacMillan was the first Provincial Chief Nursing Officer for the Ontario Ministry of Health & Long Term Care (1999-2001) and Executive Director, Office of Nursing Services for First Nations and Inuit Health Branch of Health Canada 92001-2004). Most recently, she was Dean, School of Health Sciences of Humber Institute of Technology & Advanced Learning in Toronto. She hold graduate faculty appointments at both the University of Prince Edward Island and the University of New Brunswick Schools fo Nursing. Her research interests are in patient safety, nursing human resources, nursing history and interprofessional collaboration.

KELLY LACKIE

Adjunct Professor (2005 – Present); Sessional Lecturer (2001 – Present)
Faculty of Health Professions, School of Nursing, Dalhousie University, Halifax, NS

Course professor N3320: Introduction to Acute Care Specialty Nursing (2005-2006; 2006-2007; 2009-2010; 2010-2011; 2011-2012)

Clinical Associate (contract position), MN-NP program, Athabasca University (2009-2013)

Taught EKG interpretation for NP students Dalhousie University (2009-2011)

JODI ORM, MSN, RN, CNE

Director of Simulation Education, Assistant Professor of Nursing, Lake Superior State University

Jodi Orm is a certified nurse educator and a nursing education consultant. She is the Director of Simulation Education for Lake Superior State University where she is a tenured faculty member. She has been instrumental in planning and developing the new simulation program and simulation center for LSSU. Specializing in curricular innovation with an emphasis on methodologies for promoting active learning, she is passionate about sharing this educational philosophy with other educators.

SANDRA DEVLIN-COP, RN, MScN, CHE

Program Coordinator Clinical Simulation & Nursing Professor
Humber Institute of Technology and Advanced Learning School of Health Sciences

Sandra Devlin-Cop is a Registered Nurse who has worked in primarily in critical care, and nursing leadership. She completed her BScN in 1987 and her MScN in 1991. In addition, she received her CHE in 1992. She has worked throughout the provinces acute care hospitals, community agencies and with the College of Nurses of Ontario.

Sandra changed streams within nursing and began her academic career with the Faculty of Nursing, University of Toronto in 2003 as a lecturer, in addition to teaching in the graduate program and undergraduate program she was the Director of the Clinical Simulation Learning Centre. Sandra was responsible for the architectural design and development of the simulation centre.

Sandra has further developed her expertise in clinical simulation and since joined Humber Institute of Technology and Advanced Learning as the Program Coordinator for Clinical Simulation. She is also a professor with the School of Health Sciences. She has been instrumental as a team member on two large ministry funded research projects in clinical simulation.

JOHN GILLESPIE

University of Louisville, School of Medicine- Louisville, KY- Simulation Technician 2001-2003

Medical Education Technologies- Sarasota, FL- (CAE) Coordinator, Education and Training 2003-2005

Medical College of Georgia, School of Nursing and Department of Emergency Medicine- Augusta, GA- Coordinator, Interdisciplinary Simulation Center 2005-2009

National Disaster Life Support Foundation- Augusta, GA-Instructor 2005-2011

Galen College of Nursing- Louisville, KY- Corporate Director, Clinical Simulation Operations for six campuses in Kentucky, Texas, Florida, and Ohio 2009-2011

Laerdal Medical-Wappinger Falls, NY- Educational Services Specialist- 2011 to present

Publications- Article November 2003, Anesthesia Journal, Co-author, Eason, Goodrow, Gillespie

Chapter-Clinical Simulation, chapter 53- Creative procurement for your simulation program Publication Date: December 19, 2007 | Edition: 1