

Faculty of Health Professions
Practice Education Committee
Terms of Reference

The Practice Education Committee (PEC) is an interprofessional Committee that provides mutual support and information sharing related to practice education placements (also known as practicum, fieldwork, internship) of students in their programs. The members believe that interprofessional consultation among Units is both effective and efficient in advancing the professional practice education of students in the Faculty of Health Professions. This is a standing committee of the Faculty of Health Professions and reports to Faculty Council.

ROLES and FUNCTION

1. to enhance practice education through information sharing and problem solving; to provide a forum for further discussion and action within the respective programs.
2. to act in an advisory role to Programs and the Office of the Dean.
3. to identify needs and provide education and resources for practice educators.
4. to develop interprofessional and other practice education models for students in practice education.
5. to liaise with the Office of the Dean or delegate as necessary.
6. to work with legal counsel on all issues regarding students in clinical practice and any issues arising therein.

MEMBERSHIP

The Coordinators of practice education from each Unit in the Faculty of Health Professions and the Interprofessional Experience Coordinator; a Unit may have more than one member. The members will take in turn the responsibilities of Chair, Vice-Chair and Secretary. Decisions and recommendations are normally reached by consensus.
