

GUEST LECTURES

1. School of Communication Sciences and Disorders. African Heritage Month Panelist February 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020
2. Presentation to Board of Governors 5.2 Belong April 2019
3. Working in Diverse Communities-Doing No Harm. School of Physiotherapy (February, 2019)
4. Graduate Student Seminar Leisure Studies. Use of Critical Race Theory and Black Feminist Thought in Research (November 2019).
5. The Impact of Racism on Women of African Ancestry. Gender and Women's Studies. Dalhousie University (February, 2018)
6. Is there a Difference? Does Diversity Matter? School of Health and Human Performance (Kin 4600, LEIS 3296, HPRO 3360, HPRO 3325) (2008-present)
7. The Question of the Other! University of Kings College (Foundation Year Program) Conceptions of Race CTMP 2115.03) (2003-present)
8. Developing an Inclusive Classroom. Mount St. Vincent University, Education Department (October 2003-present)
9. Challenges facing Racialized Women-Human Book. Women's Studies (Acadia University) (March 2013)
10. Children from diverse language and cultural Backgrounds: Assessment and Treatment Issues. Human Communication Disorders (HS 649) (Sept 2012)
11. Culture, cultural sensitivity, cultural competence, cultural safety Human Communication Disorders (HS 649) (Sept 2012)
12. Why? Does it Really Matter. University of Southern Mississippi (Community Recreation Services for Persons with Disabilities HPR 351, Sport Psychology, Social Work Policy 2, Diversity Class, Recreation Inclusion Class, Sport Pedagogy) (2012)
13. Cross Cultural Issues for Social Work (BSW) (Winter, 2005)
14. The History Between Nova Scotia and Sierra Leone. St. Mary's University (African Nova Scotia History Course) (Fall 2003)
15. Role of the Black Student Advising Centre. School of Social Work (Fall, 2003)
16. Why? Does it Really Matter. School of Nursing Dalhousie University (NURS 1000) (Fall 2004)