

DALHOUSIE
UNIVERSITY

SCHULICH SCHOOL OF LAW

APPLICATION FORM
Borden Ladner Gervais Professional Excellence Award

$2,500

The law firm of Borden Ladner Gervais awards an annual prize in the amount of $2,500 to a first year student who has achieved academic excellence and has displayed qualities that reflect the Borden Ladner Gervais core values, which include integrity, excellence, teamwork and commitment. If more than one qualified student applies, it is possible that two smaller awards will be made in some years.

Interested students should apply to the Associate Dean's Office, providing details of how they meet the criteria for this award. In addition to academic excellence, this could include information on, for example, community contributions, participation in law journal activities and submission of articles for publication, participation in the organization of speakers and other events for law school societies. Consideration will also be given to any new initiatives developed by a student which would improve the school or the community at large. Please note that this award cannot be awarded until final grades are available.

Nominations must be received in the Associate Dean's office by March 31st.

Name of Student Applying: _____
(Print Please)

Student ID Number: _____

Please list Committees and/or Organizations affiliated with in the Law School and /or broader community.

Student's Signature: _____