Dalhousie Legal Aid Board of Trustees Application Form

Dalhousie Legal Aid is the only community law clinic in Nova Scotia. It is a unique partnership of community groups, law students, community legal workers and lawyers working together. We strive to make a difference in the lives of Nova Scotians through our outreach information clinics, individual representation, and community development initiatives. Our vision is to challenge inequity through advocacy, community development and law reform, and provide Nova Scotians with access to the law.
