

SAVE THE DATE

6th Annual Douglas M. Johnston* Lecture

Elizabeth May, OC, MP

“How Did Canada Go From Sustainability Leader to Laggard?
And how do we get back on track?”

Elizabeth May is an environmentalist, writer, activist, lawyer and leader of the Green Party of Canada. She has a long record as a committed and dedicated advocate – for social justice, for the environment, for human rights, and for pragmatic economic solutions.

Thursday, October 16, 2014

7:00 – 8:30pm

Ondaatje Hall, Dalhousie University
Marion McCain Arts & Social Sciences Building
6135 University Avenue, Halifax, NS

~ ~ ~ ~ ~

This event is part of the Environment, Sustainability & Society Lecture Series hosted by the College of Sustainability and is co-sponsored the Marine & Environmental Law Institute at Dalhousie University

* Douglas M. Johnston was a leading teacher, scholar and writer in the international marine and environmental law community and was the first coordinator of the Marine & Environmental Law Program (MELP) at Dalhousie University.

