Edited Collections and Commissioned Reports

Moira L. McConnell, (contributing author) to Governance of Arctic Marine Shipping (May 2008). Report prepared by the Marine & Environmental Law Institute, Dalhousie Law School, for Transport Canada as part of Canada’s contribution to the Arctic Council’s Arctic Marine Shipping Assessment (published as part of the AMSA studies, 2009).

Background paper for the U.N. General Assembly (Oceans Institute of Canada 1989)

Law Reform Commission of Nova Scotia Research and Writing

(As Executive Director of the Commission with responsibility for project research design and management, substantive research and writing in most projects, editorial review and publishing)

Articles & Book Chapters

2012-2013

2010 - 2011

1999- 2009

Moira L. McConnell, “Responsive ocean governance: the problem of invasive species and ships’ ballast water – A Canadian study Understanding and Strengthening EU-Canada Relations in Law

1985-1998

Moira L. McConnell, "'Forward this cargo to Taiwan": Canadian Extradition Law and Practice and Crime on the High Seas" (1997) 8 Criminal Law Forum 335.

Moira L. McConnell, "Is law becoming too complex for one top court to handle?" Financial Times. April 23, 1990 (editorial) (1000 words).

Moira L. McConnell & David VanderZwaag, "Sustainable Development and Marine Environmental Protection", in Sustainable Development in Canada: Options for Law Reform.
Moira L. McConnell, "The International Regulation of Atmospheric Pollution", in Sustainable Development in Canada: Options for Law Reform. (Canadian Bar Association 1990) 166.

Selected Presentations

(Electronic) Special lecture on the Maritime Labour Convention, 2006 and the Inspection of Work conditions to the Forum (Class) of Universidad Maritima Del Caribe, in Venezuela (23 July 2009).

University of Sydney, Faculty of Law, Parsons Fellow, March 2007 Graduate and Continuing Education lecture “The (proposed) Maritime Labour Convention, 2006”.

“The Dynamic Relationship Between Law and ‘ADR’” a paper presented to the International Centre for Conflict Resolution, University of Melbourne. Public talk co-sponsored by the Victorian Association for Dispute Resolution, Melbourne, July 1998.

“Risky Business: Corporate Directorship, Liability and Controlling Corporate Culture” (presented to Client seminar, AAH, Sydney, Australia, 1997)

Regulation of Tobacco Company Advertising and Arts Sponsorship in Canada. Presentation and resource person for Canadian Arts Council Workshop, February 1996.

“A Anglo-Canadian Legal Concepts and Aboriginal Care-giving Practices: And if the Shoe Does Not Fit?” a paper presented to Feminism and Legal Theory Workshop, Columbia University,
May 1994.

“Being Born Female is Life Threatening”, Public Lecture, Saint Mary’s University, Human Rights Course - Gender and International Human Rights, March 10th, 1994.

Selected Misc. Publications & Other Activities

Programme and curriculum design, case study development and facilitation of skill development workshops in a University Certificate (as well as contract work for the Programme with government) in the Dalhousie Negotiation and Conflict Management Programme (1996-2000).

Facilitator, Funding Issues, Canadian-US Coast Guard, Transboundary Response Workshop, December 6-8, 1994., Dartmouth, N.S.

Panel Presentation, Acadia University, March 1994 on The Legal Alternatives for a Woman Who Is Assaulted By Her Spouse, Commentator on NFB film “When Women Kill”

Revision of “The Code of Conduct for Subsidies”, Simulated Negotiation for GATT training programme. (1989FF) (Working with then Professor G. Winham, Department of Political Science, Dalhousie University (now Professor Emeritus)).