

DALHOUSIE HEALTH JUSTICE INSTITUTE

SEMINAR SERIES 2026 - 2027

Friday September 18

It's Not a Policing Matter: Decriminalizing Mental Health Crises

Jamie Livingston

Department of Criminology, Saint Mary's University

Friday October 16

Art and Abortion Utopias

Emma Campbell

Ulster University & Alliance for Choice

Friday October 30

Tracing the Financialization of Canadian Healthcare and Childcare

Leanna Katz

Faculty of Law, McGill University

Friday January 22

Models of Criminal Justice and Public and Mental Health

Kent Roach

Faculty of Law, University of Toronto

Friday February 26

Where's Canada? Global Health Needs Allies and Leadership

Anurita Bains

HIV and Health with UNICEF

Friday March 19

Beyond Engagement: Power, Partnership, and Health Justice in Community-Engaged Research

Stephana Julia Moss

*Pediatrics, Infectious Diseases
Research Chair, Canadian Center for Vaccinology
Faculty of Medicine, Dalhousie University*

SCHULICH SCHOOL OF LAW
Health Justice Institute

NO REGISTRATION REQUIRED.
FOR MORE INFORMATION: dhji@dal.ca

Series hosted by the Dalhousie Health Justice Institute with support from the Schulich School of Law

FREE PUBLIC LECTURES

12:10pm - 1:20pm

IN PERSON ONLY: Room 104 | Weldon Law Building |
6061 University Ave.

Light Refreshments will be provided in the same room as the lecture

DAL.CA/DHJI/SEMINAR-SERIES