

SESSIONS@ SCHULICH

CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

HOW FAR WILL SECTION 7 GO? THE CHARTER AND ENVIRONMENTAL RIGHTS

JAMIE SIMPSON, BSC(H) MSCF JD RPF
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
EAST COAST ENVIRONMENTAL LAW ASSOCIATION

Jamie Simpson is executive director with the East Coast Environmental Law Association. He has a background in biology, forestry and law, and has worked as a forester, writer and advocate for sensible forestry practices. Jamie has received several awards for his conservation work, as well as the Elizabeth May Award for Environmental Service, the Edward C Foley award, Marine and Environmental Law Program, and the Environmental Law prize at Dalhousie University.

Jamie is the author of Restoring the Acadian Forest, A Guide to Forest Stewardship for Woodlot Owners in the Maritimes, and Journeys through Eastern Old-growth Forests: A Narrative Guide. When he has the chance, Jamie loves to climb rocks, paddle his canoe, and play his fiddle and guitar.

5 - 6:30 PM, MONDAY FEBRUARY 23

Rm 104, Weldon Law Building, 6061 University Avenue

6:30 - 8 PM, JOIN MELAW PRACTITIONERS, FACULTY AND STUDENTS FOR A MIXER IN THE STUDENT LOUNGE

RSVP by February 19th to Cherilyn.macintosh@dal.ca