REQUIREMENTS FOR MELP SPECIALIZATION CERTIFICATES:

Effective Fall 2025, the updated requirements apply to incoming first-year JD law students pursuing the MELP Specialization Certificate

- Students must complete the two required courses for their chosen specialization certificate (either the environmental law specialization or marine law specialization) and must complete a total of 15 specialization course credits from the corresponding list above.
- All courses counted towards satisfying the environmental law specialization and/or the marine law specialization must be completed with no grade below C, and with a weighted average in those courses of at least B (e.g., 70).
- MELP specialization certificate students are required to attend (in person) at least one of the Marine & Environmental Law Institute's (MELAW) annual events — either the Douglas M. Johnston Lecture or the Meinhard Doelle Legacy Lecture.

- For all paper courses listed on page one, students MUST have their paper topic approved by the MELP Director PRIOR to writing the paper. List the course name and number below, then email this form, along with your proposed paper topic and a brief paragraph describing it, to the MELP Director at MELP@dal.ca for approval. Maximum three paper courses per academic year.

a) Paper course	course #	Approved: MELP Director	Date
b) Paper course	course #	Approved: MELP Director	Date
c) Paper course	course #	Approved: MELP Director	Date
d) Paper course	course #	Approved: MELP Director	Date
e) Paper course	course #	Approved: MELP Director	Date
f) Paper course	course #	Approved: MELP Director	Date

- Students may take one additional paper course in law, not listed as a MELP course on page one, as an elective toward the MELP certificate. The paper topic must be approved by the MELP Director PRIOR to writing the paper. List the course name and number below and email this form, along with your proposed paper topic and a brief paragraph describing it, to the MELP Director at MELP@dal.ca for approval.

a) Paper course	course #	Approved: MELP Director	Date
b) Paper course	course #	Approved: MELP Director	Date

- Students may seek special permission from the MELP Director to take one non-law course as an elective to be credited towards the MELP specialization. Complete this form and email to the MELP Director at MELP@dal.ca.

Non-law course	course #	Approved: MELP Director	Date

- Students participating in an exchange program can request that one law course from that exchange be credited towards the specialization certificate. The content of this course cannot duplicate and should be substantially different from the course content of courses the student has previously or will pursue to satisfy the requirements of the specialization. The course, if approved, can serve as one of the electives; it cannot replace a required course in the specialization. Complete this form and email it along with a copy of the syllabus from the exchange institution to the MELP Director at MELP@dal.ca.

Exchange program course name	Approved: MELP Director	Date
