Polar Oceans Governance in the Twenty-first Century

Professor Donald R. Rothwell, GUEST SPEAKER

Donald R. Rothwell is a leading international lawyer from Australia. He is Professor of International Law, Assistant Head of School, Director – LLM Programs, and Deputy Director of the Australian Centre for Military Law and Justice at the ANU College of Law, Australian National University. His research addresses many intersecting areas of international law with a specific focus on law of the sea, law of the polar regions, and implementation of international law within Australia. He is presently working on projects assessing Antarctic security, international legal practice in Australia, and Arctic navigation, and is the current Co-Editor of the Australian Year Book of International Law.
