

Donations & Gifts

Monetary Gifts

The Dalhousie Libraries gratefully appreciate monetary gifts to purchase materials and to support special projects and initiatives. Individual, corporate, and foundation funding is actively sought to enable the Libraries to serve the needs of all users more fully.

A financial gift to the Libraries can help fund:

- Student learning spaces
- Mi'kmaw programs and initiatives
- EDIA programs and initiatives
- African Nova Scotian programs and initiatives
- Support for student-led projects
- Targeted areas of research needs
- Digital projects
- Development of community programming

To inquire about monetary donations or endowments to support Library collections and initiatives, please contact the Office of Advancement or visit the Giving website.

- Phone: 902-494-8801
- Toll-free 1-800-565-9969

Donation of Materials

The Dalhousie Libraries do not accept donations of any materials for the General Collections of the Sir James Dunn Law, W.K. Kellogg Health Sciences, Killam Memorial, MacRae, and Sexton Design & Technology libraries.

The libraries do accept material donations to our Special Collections, Archives, and Agricola Collections.

For donations of rare printed and music materials (recordings and scores), please contact Special Collections:

- Karen Smith: K.E.M.Smith@dal.ca, 902-494-8803

For donations of archival materials, please contact:

- Dean of Libraries: Dean.lib@dal.ca

For donations to the Agricola Collection, please contact:

- Dean of Libraries: Dean.lib@dal.ca

