

Services at the Dalhousie Libraries during COVID-19

libraries.dal.ca | library@dal.ca

Book a computer or study spot. Hours vary by location.

Borrow circulating materials from any Novanet library through the curbside pickup service. Physical access to the collections for browsing purposes is available on a limited basis.

Document Delivery provides access to library materials not available through Novanet. docdel@dal.ca

Research and reference help is provided via email and LiveHelp chat. Subject specialists are available for in-depth consultations in your subject area via email and virtual meetings.

Assistance from the IT Help Desk, including Brightspace support for students, will be available via phone and email. support@dal.ca

Brightspace support for faculty will continue virtually and at intech@dal.ca. Additional online teaching support can be found at dal.ca/onlineteaching

One month extended loans for laptops are available for students.

Librarians will provide virtual instructional sessions and other supports for faculty.

As always, you have access to a vast collection of electronic scholarly resources — eBooks, eJournals, and more.