

Welcome Back to the Dalhousie Libraries

Date created: September 3, 2020

Duration: 2:12

Welcome back to the Dalhousie Libraries!

We've missed you!

Most of our spaces will be open by Sept 8, with a few reopening later.

No matter where in the world you will be this fall, we're here for you. You can access many of our services at libraries.dal.ca.

Chat live with a librarian using LiveHelp or email your subject librarian.

IT Help Desk services will be available by phone and email.

eJournals, eBooks, digitized archival materials & more are available online.

For those of you who'll be visiting our spaces in person, we'll have new ways of doing things.

The libraries will be open with reduced hours this fall.

Spaces will be open by appointment to current Dal students, faculty & staff.

You'll need your Dal Card to gain entry.

And don't forget your mask!

We've removed some seating to limit our capacity and for social distancing.

Laptops for students will be available for extended loans.

Food and drink will be permitted but microwaves will not be available.

Most food outlets on campus will not be open in September.

Browsing the stacks will be by appointment for current Dal students and faculty.

You can continue to access circulating library materials by curbside pickup.

We've expanded our curbside pickup service to alumni & off-campus borrowers.

Check out the library events calendar for virtual library orientation events.

Things will definitely be different, but we're still here for you!

We're counting on you to help us keep everyone using the Dal Libraries safe.

Thanks for your cooperation!

Stay up-to-date! libraries.dal.ca/covid-19-updates.html

Dalhousie Libraries logo, libraries.dal.ca