

Honours Supervision Fact Sheet

Name: Robert Finbow

Contact Info: finbow@dal.ca

Research interests:

Comparative politics; state theory and democracy
trade agreements and social policy
Canadian comparative political economy and regionalism;

Interesting honours topic to supervise:

Countering exclusionary, authoritarian populism

Previously supervised topics:

“Populism and Democracy in Latin America”
“Deliberative Democracy and Citizens United”
“Social Movement Unionism”; “Just transition from coal”
“US Imperialist Intervention in Allende’s Chile”
“ACOA and the failure of regional development in Atlantic Canada”
“Human and Labour rights in free trade agreements”
“Working for Empowerment: Women in the Mexican Labour Sector.”
“Economic Integration in the Maritime Provinces”
“From the Vietnam Syndrome to the Iraq War Syndrome”
“Who Owns the North? The Management of Resources in the Arctic”
“The East Coast Fisheries Crisis”
“The Cuban Path to Sustainable Economic Development”
“Theories to explain the problems with democratization in Peru.”
“Challenging the Rule of Law in Mexico: Drug Trafficking and Lack of Solutions”

Favourite hobbies:

Reading mystery and spy stories, fiction and nonfiction
Music: classic rock and pop, jazz, light classical masters
Hiking, walking, exploring new places, cities, architecture, nature
World cuisines (preparing and eating); Spectator sports (esp MLB/NHL)
Intelligent, cynical, satirical (often British) comedies

How often do you check your emails?

Obsessively and frequently (but get lots so be patient and persistent)

