COURSE OVERVIEW

This course provides an advanced introduction to the study of defence policy in Canada. The course is divided into three sections. The first section of the course introduces key theoretical issues and debates in the study of Canadian foreign and defence policy. It discusses key theories of International Relations and assesses their utility in explaining defence policy in Canada. The second section of the course covers some of the major domestic institutions that are involved in the making of defence policy, most notably the Department of National Defence, the Canadian Armed Forces, and the security and intelligence agencies. This section also discusses the defence budget and procurement process. The third section of the course introduces a variety of security issues and case studies. It covers border and homeland security, continental defence, arctic security, NATO, the global arms trade, the War in Afghanistan, the Middle East, Russia and Eastern Europe, China and the Asia-Pacific, United Nations Peacekeeping, and humanitarian assistance and disaster relief.

REQUIRED READINGS

There is no required book for purchase. All required readings for the course will be made available online by the instructor.

GRADE DISTRIBUTION

1) Mid-Term Exam (Held in class February 16): 25%
2) Research Paper (Due in class March 14): 35%
3) Final Exam (To be held during the April 12-26 Exam period): 40%
ASSIGNMENTS

1) Mid-Term Exam: The mid-term exam will be held in class on February 16. It is worth 25% of the course grade. The first portion of the mid-term exam will ask students to define and explain the significance of key terms. The second portion will ask students to write an essay in response to a question. Both portions will give students some choice about which terms and essay questions they wish to answer.

2) Research Paper: Students will write a research paper of approximately 2,500 words (8-10 pages, double spaced, Times New Roman, 12 point font). Students are free to choose their own topic provided that it relates to the subject matter of the course. The paper is due in class on March 14. It is worth 35% of the course grade. Late papers will be assessed a penalty of 5 percentage points per day. Papers submitted more than 7 days late will not be accepted. Students must submit a hard copy of the paper to the instructor. Papers cannot be submitted via email. The late penalty is administered based on the date that a hard copy was submitted.

3) Final Exam: The final exam will be held during the April 12-26 Exam period. The format of the final exam will be similar to the mid-term exam. It is worth 40% of the course grade.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES, STATEMENTS, GUIDELINES and RESOURCES for SUPPORT

1) Academic Regulations. This course is governed by the academic rules and regulations set forth in the University Calendar and the Senate.

2) University Statements.

   a) Academic Integrity. At Dalhousie University, we are guided in all of our work by the values of academic integrity: honesty, trust, fairness, responsibility and respect (The Center for Academic Integrity, Duke University, 1999). As a student, you are required to demonstrate these values in all of the work you do. The University provides policies and procedures that every member of the university community is required to follow to ensure academic integrity. Click here to read more.

   b) Accessibility. The Advising and Access Services Centre is Dalhousie's centre of expertise for student accessibility and accommodation. The advising team works with students who request accommodation as a result of: a disability, religious obligation, or any barrier related to any other characteristic protected under Human Rights legislation (NS, NB, PEI, NFLD). Click here to read more.

   c) Student Code of Conduct. Everyone at Dalhousie is expected to treat others with dignity and respect. The Code of Student Conduct allows Dalhousie to take disciplinary action if students don’t follow this community expectation. When appropriate, violations of the code can be resolved in a reasonable and informal manner—perhaps through a restorative justice process. If an informal resolution can’t be reached, or would be inappropriate, procedures exist for formal dispute resolution. Click here to read more.

d) Diversity and Inclusion – Culture of Respect. Every person at Dalhousie has a right to be respected and safe. We believe inclusiveness is fundamental to education. We stand for equality. Dalhousie is strengthened in our diversity. We are a respectful and inclusive community. We are committed to being a place where everyone feels welcome and supported, which is why our Strategic Direction prioritizes fostering a culture of diversity and inclusiveness (Strategic Priority 5.2). e) Recognition of Mi’kmaq Territory. Dalhousie University would like to acknowledge that the University is on Traditional Mi’kmaq Territory. The Elders in Residence program provides students with access to First Nations elders for guidance, counsel and support. Visit the office in the McCain Building (room 3037) or contact the programs at elders@dal.ca or 902-494-6803 (leave a message).

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

1) Academic Integrity. All assignments submitted may be subjected to evaluation by a University approved computer service that checks assignments for plagiarism. Students are required to retain an electronic copy of all papers in addition to the hard copy submitted to the professor.

2) Academic Accommodation. Students may request accommodation as a result of barriers experienced related to disability, religious obligation, or any characteristic protected under Canadian human rights legislation.

Students who require academic accommodation for either classroom participation or the writing of tests and exams should make their request to the Advising and Access Services Center (AASC) prior to or at the outset of the regular academic year. Please visit www.dal.ca/access for more information and to obtain the Request for Accommodation form.

A note taker may be required as part of a student’s accommodation. There is an honorarium of $75/course/term (with some exceptions). If you are interested, please contact AASC at 494-2836 for more information or send an email to notetaking@dal.ca

3) Grade Appeals. Students who wish to appeal their grade must produce a brief written statement (approximately 250 words) explaining why they feel that the assignment/exam was not graded correctly. Appeals must be made within one week from the date on which the assignment/exam was returned. The appeal process will produce a revised grade that may be raised, unchanged, or lowered. The revised grade is final and cannot be appealed.

4) Use of Electronic Devices. Students are not permitted to use any electronic devices during the mid-term exam. Students are asked to turn off their cell phones during lectures. Laptops, tablets and other electronic devices may be used during lectures for note taking, but not for any purpose that, in the judgement of the instructor, is distracting to class (i.e. listening to music, streaming videos, etc).

5) Email Communication with the Instructor. Emails to the instructor must be sent from the student’s official Dalhousie University Email Account. The instructor will not respond to emails sent from any other account except to inform students of this policy. Grades will not be discussed over Email.

6) Grade Scale and Definitions. All course assignments will be graded according to the following grade scale, which was approved by the Dalhousie University Senate in 2014:
