Lecture, discussion, film screenings: ASYNCHRONOUS (pre-recorded)

E-mail: yleving@dal.ca

Office Hours: by appointment via email.

Course Description

Vladimir Putin has confounded world leaders and defied their assumptions as they tried to figure him out, only to misjudge him time and again. “The Putin Mystique” (Anna Arutunyan’s term) will take us on a journey through the Russia of Vladimir Putin, named by Forbes magazine in 2013 as the most powerful man in the world. This is the man who, allegedly, three years later sealed fate of the US presidential elections. While looking at Putin’s rise to power, we will also seek during this course to go beneath politics and policy to look at how human beings experience state power within the cultural phenomena including visual arts, literature, cinema, TV, Internet, popular music, and photography.

The course (normally) includes lectures, discussions, and film screenings; due to COVID-19 the syllabus and delivery modes have been adjusted. Please, follow the Worksheets and listen to podcasts that are now being assigned to various topics made available on the cloud storage. (If there is no Worksheet attached, then this means that the module is pretty self-explanatory.)

Required readings:

Scholarly resources will be supplied as PDF files

Recommended readings:

Arutunyan, Anna. The Putin Mystique: Inside Russia's Power Cult (2014)

"The Russians backed my homework."

- No, as a Russian Canadian myself, I won't believe you. So, please, do both of us a little favor: complete your readings.

Other literature required for discussions:

Video and Audio files = Materials to be provided by instructor as electronic files for viewing on your home devices.

Note on ASYNCHRONOUS nature of the course:

The course is arranged around case studies based on a particular topic.

I will supply an article/chapter along with a Worksheet to assist you with learning process in this ASYNCHRONOUS mode of delivery.

You will focus on reading assigned materials, listening to a specially recorded podcasts, viewing videos and answering questions in the supplied worksheets.

You are free to advance at your own pace. There will be a Midterm and Final Paper (fixed dates).

Should you have any questions or experience technical difficulties, do not hesitate to reach me out via email.

SCHEDULE

Introduction:

Meet your instructor, Prof. Yuri Leving, and learn more about the Department of Russian Studies: <https://vimeo.com/452219999/4c17c93cdd>

Since I am not featured in the pre-recorded lectures and audio podcasts (although my voice does!), I thought it would be fair to briefly introduce myself and tell you about what I am doing at Dalhousie. To add a human touch, I have recorded this introduction in my home office during the COVID-19 pandemic. Because this is an online asynchronous course, I can't meet all of you in person, but feel free to tell me about yourself (of course, only if you wish) and send me emails any time.

Online education doesn't mean that I am not available – on the contrary, I am here for you and I want to enhance your learning experience.

Topic 1. Putin's Russia: Introduction – From the Czar Yeltsin to the rise of Putin

¹ By proceeding you are agreeing not to circulate any of the materials that were compiled for this course, including the lectures/modules/podcasts, which are considered the intellectual property of the instructor.

SECTION B: UNIVERSITY POLICIES, STATEMENTS, GUIDELINES and RESOURCES for SUPPORT

This course is governed by the academic rules and regulations set forth in the University Calendar and the Senate (follow the link to the current University Regulations – Academic Calendars).

University Statements

Academic Integrity http://www.dal.ca/dept/university_secretariat/academic-integrity.html

At Dalhousie University, we are guided in all of our work by the values of academic integrity: honesty, trust, fairness, responsibility and respect (The Center for Academic Integrity, Duke University, 1999). As a student, you are required to demonstrate these values in all of the work you do. The University provides policies and procedures that every member of the university community is required to follow to ensure academic integrity.

Accessibility https://www.dal.ca/campus_life/academic-support/accessibility.html

The Advising and Access Services Centre is Dalhousie's centre of expertise for student accessibility and accommodation. The advising team works with students who request accommodation as a result of: a disability, religious obligation, or any barrier related to any other characteristic protected under Human Rights legislation (NS, NB, PEI, NFLD).

Student Code of Conduct

https://www.dal.ca/campus_life/safety-respect/student-rights-and-responsibilities/student-life-policies/code-of-student-conduct.html

Everyone at Dalhousie is expected to treat others with dignity and respect. The Code of Student Conduct allows Dalhousie to take disciplinary action if students don't follow this community expectation. When appropriate, violations of the code can be resolved in a reasonable and informal manner—perhaps through a restorative justice process. If an informal resolution can't be reached, or would be inappropriate, procedures exist for formal dispute resolution.

Diversity and Inclusion – Culture of Respect

Every person at Dalhousie has a right to be respected and safe. We believe inclusiveness is fundamental to education. We stand for equality. Dalhousie is strengthened in our diversity. We are a respectful and inclusive community. We are committed to being a place where everyone feels welcome and supported, which is why our Strategic Direction prioritizes fostering a culture of diversity and inclusiveness (Strategic Priority 5.2).
