

POLI 3405 — Canadian Political Thought

Dalhousie University — Winter 2017
Studley Campus, McCain Arts and Social Sciences, 2132
Mondays 10:05 am – 12:55 pm

Instructor: Dr. M. Firmini — Office TBA

Office Hours: TBA

Email: Marcella.Firmini@dal.ca

Course synopsis: This course addresses the distinct school of Canadian political thought and its development. From the ideological origins of Canadian society to contemporary thinkers, the course will explore theories and philosophical currents that have shaped Canada.

We begin with the colonial era and continue through to current trends. The aim will be to analyze the underlying logic of each strand of political thought and the interactions between them. At the end of the term, students will have a deeper knowledge of the intellectual traditions that have shaped (and continue to shape) Canada. This awareness will enrich their understanding of contemporary Canadian institutions, the current issues in Canadian politics, and the foundational values of the country.

Evaluations:

A. Thematic Papers: The course is divided into three themes. Each theme will end with an in-class discussion and a paper due at the end of each segment. The thematic paper must be four pages minimum/five maximum and must reference/cite (at the very least) four readings related to each class. Extraneous readings are permitted. The paper should relate briefly and concisely to the material covered for the theme, but the majority of your time should be spent on your own reflections about the readings and the theme at hand. The papers are NOT summaries of the readings. Ulterior details will be posted on Bright Space as to formatting. Deadlines and evaluations as follows:

January 30 - 20%

February 27 – 20%

April 3 – 25%

B. Major Paper: The paper is a standard (research) term paper. Topics will be outlined and posted to Bright Space. Topics of your choice are permitted, but must pertain to Canadian Political Thought and to the themes covered in this course. Consult with the instructor before proceeding with your research. Ulterior details will be posted on Bright Space as to formatting, source count, and length. Deadline as follows:

35% - March 13

Dalhousie Grading Scheme:

Each assignment will receive a numerical grade. Final grades will be translated into letter grades using the following scale:

A+	90-100	Excellent	Considerable evidence of original thinking; demonstrated outstanding capacity to analyze and synthesize; outstanding grasp of subject matter; evidence of extensive knowledge base.
A	85-89

Statement on Academic Integrity (Source: Dalhousie University):

“At Dalhousie University, we are guided in all of our work by the values of academic integrity: honesty, trust, fairness, responsibility and respect (The Center for Academic Integrity, Duke University, 1999). As a student, you are required to demonstrate these values in all of the work you do. The University provides policies and procedures that every member of the university community is required to follow to ensure academic integrity.

What does academic integrity mean?

At university we advance knowledge by building on the work of other people. Academic integrity means that we are honest and accurate in creating and communicating all academic products. Acknowledgement of other people’s work must be done in a way that does not leave the reader in any doubt as to whose work it is. Academic integrity means trustworthy conduct such as not cheating on examinations and not misrepresenting information. It is the student’s responsibility to seek assistance to ensure that these standards are met.

How can you achieve academic integrity?

[T]he following are some ways that you can achieve academic integrity:

- Make sure you understand Dalhousie’s policies on academic integrity (<http://academicintegrity.dal.ca/Policies/>)
- Do not cheat in examinations or write an exam or test for someone else
- Be sure not to plagiarize, intentionally or unintentionally
- Clearly indicate the sources used in your written or oral work. This includes ideas, figures of speech, graphical representations, diagrams, videos, and images.
- Do not use the work of another from the Internet or any other source and submit it as your own

- When you use the ideas of other people (paraphrasing), make sure to acknowledge the source
- Do not submit work that has been completed...previously [and] submitted for another assignment

Where can you turn for help?

If you are ever unsure about any aspect of your academic work, contact me; also:

- Academic Integrity website <http://academicintegrity.dal.ca/>
- Writing Centre
(http://www.dal.ca/campus_life/student_services/academic-support/writing-and-study-skills.html)

What will happen if an allegation of an academic offence is made against you?

I am required to report every suspected offence... If you are found guilty of an offence, a penalty will be assigned ranging from a warning, to failure of the assignment or failure of the class, to expulsion from the University. Penalties may also include a notation on your transcript that indicates that you have committed an academic offence.

All students in this class are to read and understand the policies on academic integrity and plagiarism referenced in the Policies and Student Resources sections of the academicintegrity.dal.ca website.

Ignorance of such policies is no excuse for violations".

Plagiarism, therefore, is considered a serious academic offence. No excuse is acceptable for plagiarism and NO AMOUNT OF PLAGIARISM WILL BE TOLERATED AND THUS WILL BE REPORTED IMMEDIATELY. For more information, see:

Requests for Student Accommodation (Source: Dalhousie University):

“Students may request accommodation as a result of barriers experienced related to disability, religious obligation, or any characteristic protected under Canadian human rights legislation. Students who require academic accommodation for either classroom participation or the writing of tests and exams should make their request to the Advising and Access Services Center (AASC) prior to or at the outset of the regular academic year. Please visit www.dal.ca/access for more information and to obtain the Request for Accommodation form.

A note taker may be required as part of a student’s accommodation. There is an honorarium of $75/course/term (with some exceptions). If you are interested, please contact AASC at 902-494-2836 for more information or send an email to notetaking@dal.ca

Please note that your classroom may contain specialized accessible furniture and equipment. It is important that these items remain in the classroom, untouched, so that students who require their usage will be able to fully participate in the class”.
