It is the Student's responsibility to notify the residence office as soon as possible that they will not be remaining in residence for the full academic year. Except in the above circumstances, no refunds of residence fees will be made. In all cases of approved early withdrawal from residence the Student will be charged for the time they occupied the residence room.

(b) The Student may terminate this agreement upon seven (7) days notice in writing, or by consent in writing of the University, where the University is in breach of any of the covenants, agreements or provisions contained herein;

(c) The University may terminate the agreement by giving thirty (30) days notice in writing to the Student of its intention to terminate, provided that the University may immediately terminate the agreement and re-enter the premises:

It is understood and agreed that if the heating, water or other service, equipment or furniture provided by the University becomes damaged or destroyed, the University shall have a reasonable time in which to repair or replace same.

12. Whenever and to the extent that the University shall be unable to fulfill, or shall be delayed or restricted in fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement due to COVID-19, the ongoing response to COVID-19 by any and all levels of government ("Government Response"), or the ongoing response to COVID-19 by the University (which may differ from governmental response), the University shall be relieved from the fulfillment of its obligation during the period in which it is unable to fulfill or is delayed or restricted in the obligation.

The University shall, so far as practicable, use reasonable efforts to minimize and mitigate the extent, effect and period of any such delay or non-performance. The Student, in turn, agrees to fully cooperate with the University when such modifications are deemed necessary by the University.

Condonation of Breach Not a Waiver

14. Any excusing, condoning, or overlooking by the University of any default, breach or non-observance by a Student at any time of any covenant, condition or regulation of this Agreement shall not operate as a waiver of the University's rights under this Agreement in respect of subsequent defaults, breaches or non-observances of terms of this Agreement, and shall not defeat or affect in any way the University's rights in respect of any such subsequent default or breach.
