

Symposium

Right to Know: Balancing Access and Privacy

September 28, 2017

University Hall, MacDonald Science Building, Dalhousie University, 6300 Coburg Rd, Halifax

Agenda
8:30 – 9:00	Registration and Networking
9:00 – 9:10	Welcoming Remarks Kristina Lillico, Library and Archives Canada
9:10 – 9:55	Keynote – Accountability for the Digital Age Catherine Tully, Information and Privacy Commissioner for Nova Scotia
9:55 – 10:40	Panel Discussion: Managing Privacy in the 21st Century Johanna Smith, Library and Archives Canada Alison Shea, Dalhousie University TBC Moderator: Patti Bannister, Nova Scotia Archives
10:40 – 11:10	Health Break
11:10 – 11:55	Student Panel Discussion: Emerging Ideas from the Dalhousie University School of Information Management Student 1 Student 2 Student 3 Moderator: Sandra Toze, Dalhousie University
12:00 – 1:30	Lunch (on your own)
1:30 – 2:15	Digital Challenges and Opportunities Creighton Barrett, Dalhousie University Tom Smyth, Library and Archives Canada Moderator: Michael Moosberger, Dalhousie University
2:15 – 2:45	Health Break
2:45 – 3:30	Leveraging Artificial Intelligence to Improve Access to Records & Information: Challenges, Opportunities, and Risks Mike Smit, Dalhousie University
3:30 – 4:00	Open Government Natasha Clarke, Service Nova Scotia

School of Information Management
Master of Information Management
Master of Library and Information Studies dal.ca/sim

Library and Archives
Canada

Bibliothèque et Archives
Canada

Canada