

Primary Health Care Research Day – Presentations

| | Session A Cabinet Room (2 nd Floor) | Session B Campaign Room (2 nd Floor) | Session C Commons Room (Basement level) | Session D Guild Hall (Lobby Level) |
|----------------|---|--|---|--|
| 1:10 pm | Did you SBIR today? The development of an innovative approach to address substance use and mental health for pregnant women and new mothers Presenter: Wanda MacDonald Mental Health & Addictions, Nova Scotia Health Authority | Paramedics providing palliative care at home in Nova Scotia & PEI Presenter: Dr. Alix Carter EHS Nova Scotia & Division of EMS, Department of Emergency Medicine, Dalhousie University | The development of practice and provider primary health care indicators from the Models and Access Atlas of Primary Care Providers in Nova Scotia (MAAP-NS) Study Presenter: Dr. Emily Gard Marshall Associate Professor, Primary Care Research Unit, Dalhousie Family Medicine and Community Health and Epidemiology | Creation of a Children’s Health Profile in NB and PEI and Development of the Capacity to Prevent Chronic Diseases from the Early Years of Life Presenter: Dr. Baukje Miedema Director of Research, Dalhousie University Family Medicine Teaching Unit, Fredericton |
| 1:25 – 1:30 pm | Transition | | | |
| 1:30 pm | Exploring pharmacists’ care of people at risk of suicide Presenter: Randa Ataya College of Pharmacy, Dalhousie University | How best to structure Interdisciplinary Primary Care Teams? Presenter: Dr. Dominika Wranik School of Public Administration, Faculty of Management, Dalhousie University | Exploring Transgender adults’ perceptions of, and experience with, primary and emergency care in NS: Lessons learned for health care providers and policy makers Presenter: Ella Vermeir School of Health and Human Performance, Dalhousie University | Clinician Self-Efficacy Pertaining to Initiating Discussions About Gestational Weight Gain Presenter: Dr. Helena Piccinini Department of Family Medicine, Dalhousie University |
| 1:45 – 1:50 pm | Transition | | | |
| 1:50 pm | Medication management activities by community pharmacies offering the Bloom Program in Nova Scotia Presenter: Brittany Wagner College of Pharmacy, Dalhousie University | A Study of Informal Learning in Community-Based Health Education Program: The Transformative Experience of One Multi-Disciplinary Health Care Team Presenter: Dr. Maureen Coady Department of Adult Education, Saint Francis Xavier University | Low back pain in the emergency department from a primary care lens Presenter: Dr. Jill Hayden Department of Health and Epidemiology, Dalhousie University | MUMS: Mapping and Understanding Mothers’ Social Networks Presenter: Joelle Monaghan School of Nursing, Dalhousie University |
| 2:05 – 2:10 | Transition | | | |