

TABLE OF CONTENTS

List of Participants	vii
List of Acronyms	xiii
Foreword
Commander Robert H. Edwards	xix
Introduction
Commander Robert H. Edwards	1
Opening Remarks
Frank Harvey	43
KEYNOTE ADDRESS
Intervention and Engagement: A View from the Bridge
Vice-Admiral Ron Buck	47
PART ONE - EXPEDITIONARY OPERATIONS, INTERVENTIONS AND ENGAGEMENT: FROM CONCEPT TO PRACTICE
Expeditionary Naval Operations: Some Background and Cautionary Thoughts
Peter T. Haydon	59
The Politics of Intervention and Engagement
Don Hubert	81
The Military Policy Dimension of Intervention and Engagement
Captain (N) A. Bruce Donaldson	87
The Influence of Law Upon Canadian Naval Strategy: Leadmark and the Evolving International Legal Regime
Lieutenant-Commander Guy Killaby	95

The Information Dimension of Intervention George Kolisnek	127
Ethical Ambiguities of ‘Humanitarian Intervention’: A Way Forward? David Black	131
Discussant Report - Expeditionary Operations, Interventions and Engagement: From Concept to Practice Stanley B. Weeks	149
 PART TWO - INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES ON EXPEDITIONARY OPERATIONS AND INTERVENTION
Navies and Globalization: An Estranged Couple Daniel Y. Coulter	155
Maritime Expeditionary Operations and Intervention: A Doctrinal Perspective James J. Tritten	169
A British Perspective on Expeditionary Operations and Intervention Jeremy Stocker	189
The NATO Perspective on Expeditionary Operations and Intervention Vice-Admiral D. E. Miller	199
Naval Intervention and Engagement in the Indo-Pacific Region James A. Boutilier	209
Discussant Report - International Perspectives on Expeditionary Operations and Intervention Robert H. Thomas	219
 PART 3 - CANADIAN STRATEGIC PERSPECTIVES ON EXPEDITIONARY OPERATIONS AND INTERVENTION

The Evolution of the Canadian Approach to Joint/Combined Operations at the Strategic and Operational Levels Vice-Admiral G.L. Garnett (Ret'd)	227
Army Expeditionary Forces: Can We Get There With Enough? Colonel W.N. Peters	241
The Meaning of Expeditionary Operations from an Air Force Perspective Thierry Gongora	259
Canada's Navy and Expeditionary Operations Captain (N) Kevin Laing and Lieutenant-Commander George Kearney	279
Discussant Report - Clausewitz, Canadian Style? Joel J. Sokolsky	305
PART 4 - CASE STUDIES ON EXPEDITIONARY OPERATIONS AND INTERVENTION
The Canadian Way of War: Experience and Principles Richard Gimblett	329
Expeditionary Operations and the International Campaign Against Terrorism: Operation Apollo Commodore J.Y. Forcier	345
The Canadian Naval Task Group in Operation Apollo Commodore Drew W. Robertson	357
The UK Experience in Sierra Leone: Two Years On Captain M.D. Tarr	373
Discussant Report - Overburdened and Underfunded: The Canadian Forces at a Crossroads Andrew Richter	385

PART 5 - ENGAGEMENT: TOWARDS MULTINATIONAL MARITIME COOPERATION

Toward International Maritime Cooperation: A Multilateral
Approach
Robert Race 399

Engage More Closely: Naval Diplomacy in the Global Village
David N. Griffiths 411

Discussant Report - Engagement: Towards Multinational Maritime Cooperation
Paul T. Mitchell 423

ABOUT THE CONTRIBUTORS 431

