

NTE Impact Ethics presents

Sanctuary: The Future for Captive Whales

Public Lecture by Lori Marino, Ph.D.

Founder & President, the Whale Sanctuary Project

Founder & Executive Director, The Kimmela Center for Animal Advocacy

Lori Marino is a neuroscientist and former faculty member at Emory University. She has published over 130 papers on dolphin and whale brain anatomy and evolution, as well as human-nonhuman animal relationships and animal welfare. She is featured in the film Blackfish, about orca captivity.

Mon. 5 Feb 2018—12:00PM-1:15PM

Biology Student Lounge, 5th floor, Biology & Earth Sciences Wing
Life Science Centre, Dalhousie University, Halifax, NS