

Honours Theses: 2011-2012

Sociology

Joshua Brisson

"Female Athletes Competing Against Stigmas and Stereotypes: The Apologetic Strategy"

Kyle Brown

"'Feeling Like You're Single': Grief, independence and reunion among wives left behind in Nova Scotia"

K-Lee Fraser

"Scotian Talented Tenth: Indigenous African Nova Scotian students' academic achievement and encouragement"

James MacKinnon

"A Career on Ice: Athletic Identity and Retirement Transition of former Canadian NHL Players"

Marie Rozendal

"Tapped Out: The social and economic drain after a DUI"

Social Anthropology

Sydney Benmore

"Affirmative (re)Action: White students' perspectives on a multicultural Canada"

Amy Donovan

"'Mountain People': Environmental responsibility, the power of landscape and the weight of history along the Margins of Preservation"

Brenden Harvey

"Urban Gardening in Halifax: What is really growing on?"

Ayla-Monic McKay

"School Now, Debt Later: What students put themselves through to put themselves through school"

Brittany Parker

"Breaking the Silence: Examining the efficacy of social services for abused women in Halifax"

Morgan Strug

"Making-Up a Face: The exploration of personal identity through drag performance culture"

Sarah Wilson

"The New Adult: Negotiations of parent involvement, interdependence, and adult status"