

Department of Sociology and Social Anthropology

Honours Research Symposium

Monday 13 April, 2015, Room 1007, Rowe Building

Presentations are 15 minutes long, with five minutes for questions.

8:50 Welcome – Dr. Martha Radice

Earthbound

9:00 Miriam Karrel “We are not ghosts in waiting”: How atheists cope with death

9:20 Roberta Watt Killing and caring: Relationships between the hunter self and its others

9:40 Hudson McLellan Intensifying colonization? Media framing of collective action in Elsipogtog (Rexton, New Brunswick)

BREAK – 10:00-10:15

Occupations and their hazards

10:15 Emily Rankin Digging up a solution to pseudoscience in archaeology

10:35 Kirstie Smith Occupational therapy: Perceived boundaries and opportunities in relation to patient care

10:55 Matt Howe “We’re more than just the guys with the keys”: The professional identity of Dalhousie Security

BREAK – 11:15-11:30

Health at the family, neighbourhood and global scale

11:30 Tameera Mohamed What (not) to expect when you’re expecting: Exploring how women plan for birth in Nova Scotia and Ontario

11:50 Bridget Livingstone Community perceptions of Mainline needle exchange

12:10 Brittany Humphries Risk and responsibility: Insider and outsider media representations of the 2014 Ebola outbreak

LUNCH – 12:30-1:30

Playing with gender

1:30 Cara Stringer (in)Visible identities: Navigating the intricacies of queer aesthetics

1:50 Courtney Oattes Competing against stereotypes: The female athlete experience

2:10 Max Stick Got balls? Examining the association between sports fandom and hegemonic masculinity

BREAK – 2:30-2:45

People and places in transition

2:45 Laura Sully Spending right? Precariat students’ experience of student loans

3:05 Grace Grundy Who cares about feminism? Young adults’ attitudes towards feminist theories

3:25 Abby Neufeld “Hip, trendy, local, craft”: Storeowners’ perspectives on commercial gentrification in the North End

BREAK – 3:45-4:00

The uses and abuses of communication

4:00 Justine Correia Underlying deception in parent-child relationships

4:20 Yasmeen Ghebari R U OK? The effects of helicopter parenting via information and communication technologies (ICTs) in first year university

4:40 Jake Hubley Power and resistance: Navigating boundaries of talk and silence in the part-time workplace

All welcome!

Please wait until you hear applause before entering the room.