

Yuri Glazov Memorial Award Application

Dr. Glazov believed that a liberal education is intimately bound up with a sense of citizenship and civic responsibility. To honour his memory, the Professor Yuri Glazov Memorial Award will be given to a student who has demonstrated excellent academic performance and who is engaged in extracurricular activities.

This year's award will be granted in amounts up to $1,000 to be put toward the Russian Program Abroad program fee. As part of your application, please submit a 300-word personal statement which describes your academic engagement with Russian studies, your service to your community, and how you plan to use your experience studying abroad to become a better global citizen. Please note that the award is only available to current Dalhousie students in good academic standing.

Please submit your application along with your application to the Russian Program Abroad to rpa@dalhousie.ca by January 31, 2024.
